

KIMBERLY POHOVEY

April 27, 2005

To whom it may concern:

My husband, Mark, and I relocated to Fort Wayne, IN from Cleveland, OH in April of 2004. Not being familiar with the area, we accepted the recommendation of my husband's colleague to hire the same realtor they had used when relocating. Thus, we were introduced to Bob Coffee, a real estate agent with Mike Thomas Associates. We were thrilled to find such a knowledgeable and personable agent to help find us the home of our dreams. Amidst the frustration of a relocation process, Bob made the task of finding a new home easy.

We made several trips to Fort Wayne to find a new home. Knowing how limited our time was during these visits, Bob made sure he was available based on our schedule and was extremely prepared with home information and arranged appointments. We felt Bob listened carefully to our requirements for a new home and delivered home viewings that met our criteria. We were able to purchase a beautiful lakefront home that we love and enjoy immensely.

Bob's extensive knowledge of the Fort Wayne area was a wonderful resource for us as we narrowed down the area in which we chose to live. He also assisted us with a wealth of information that helped us choose the right church and school for our family. Bob has always been extremely flexible, helpful, professional and courteous.

If we know anyone considering buying or selling a home, we will highly recommend they contact Bob Coffee. We are confident they will be as thrilled as we were with the results of this relationship.

Sincerely,

Kimberly Pohovey
